“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4

“ Alice was one of the funnest people I have ever known. She was one of the greatest friends anybody could have and she was never afraid to tell the she loved that she did love them. She always stood up for what she thought was right and was one of the strongest people I knew. Thanks Alice for letting me share part of your life, and I love you.4

“ Alice was one of the most wonderful people I have ever had the pleasure to know. She was always pleasant and had a smile, even when she didn't feel so good. She truly made a difference in my life and the world! She was a lady of great faith, and I pray that her faith and memories can give you, her family some comfort. May God Bless you and keep you.

“ To the Blair family,
My deepest condolences over the loss of Alice. Cherish your memories. Lean on family and friends for support and take comfort. Our Heavenly Father and His Son Christ Jesus have not forsaken you. In God’s Word at Isaiah 41:10 God assures us; “Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not gaze about, for I am your God. I will fortify you. I will really help you. I will really keep fast hold of you with my right hand of righteousness.” The death and resurrection of Christ Jesus gives us the reassurance that our loved ones will gain life again. May God’s Word comfort you as it gives hope for a future when death will be no more and we will embrace our loved ones again in paradise. John 5:21; John 11:11, 25-26, Matthew 5:5; Revelation 21:3,4. With heartfelt sympathy.
