

Charles Leguit

August 27, 1947 - August 17, 2014

Charles Leguit, 67, of Chancellor, SD, died Sunday evening, August 17, 2014, from complications of Parkinson's disease, at the Veterans Administration Royal C. Johnson Medical Center, Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Charles William Leguit was born at Parkston, South Dakota, on August 27, 1947, the son of Nick W. and Idella (Drake) Leguit. The family lived on a farm near Platte, SD until moving to Chancellor, SD in 1955. Here, he attended school until joining the U.S. Army where he served honorably in Alaska, working in communications. After returning home from the service, Charles was joined in marriage to Sharon Wildeboer. He worked for John Morrell & Co. and AA & M Furniture Refinishing. He also owned and operated C & S Roofing. Charles was a member of the Chancellor American Legion. He enjoyed hunting, fishing and playing pool. Besides his parents, he was preceded in death by his former wife, Sharon. Grateful for having shared his life are his special friend, Bonnie "Boots" Hymans of Chancellor, SD and his two sisters, Shirley (James) Kirwan, Bonesteel, SD and Winifred Leguit of Sioux Falls as well as many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. Memorial services will begin at 10:00 a.m. Monday, August 25 at the Dindot-Klusmann Funeral Home, Lennox.
