

Dick Harm Nordmann

December 28, 1954 - December 8, 2018

Dick "Dickie" Nordmann, 63, of Chancellor, SD, died, Saturday, December 8, 2018 at Sanford USD Medical Center, Sioux Falls, SD from complications of a stroke he suffered several days prior.

Dick Harm Nordmann was born on December 28, 1954, the son of Dick H. and Thelma (Folkert) Nordmann, at Sioux Falls, SD. He grew up on a farm near Lennox and attended Lennox Public Schools. He made his home in Lennox and had worked at Raven Industries in Sioux Falls until relocating to Imperial, North Carolina. Here he worked in maintenance at a body shop and then at a boat building factory. Dickie retired and moved to Chancellor, SD where he has lived for the past 15 years.

Always gifted with working with his hands, Dickie appreciated and enjoyed working on old cars and motorcycles. He was also an avid pool player. Dick was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Ronald in 2002.

Grateful for having shared his life are his children: Tony Hughes, Matlock, IA and Amie Hughes, Estherville, IA; four grandchildren: Melanie, Joseph, Gabriel and Liam and one great-granddaughter, Alison; siblings: Gerald (Ruby) Nordmann, Lennox, Jackie (Lorraine) Nordmann, Lennox and Marsha Brown, Raleigh, NC as well as other relatives and friends.

. Memorial visitation will be held 5 to 7 p.m. Friday December 28, 2018 at the Dindot-Klusmann Funeral Home, Lennox, SD, with private burial to follow in the Lennox Cemetery.

“ My good natured brother has passed on to be with family members gone before him. Our time together was complicated by life and distance but never stood in the way of our determination to remain close and connected. He will be remembered with much love by myself and his nephews Clint Host, of Houston, TX and Trevor Brown, of Hightstown, NJ as well as his niece Nicole Gianotto, her husband Frank Gianotto, her son Jayden Drake of Hightstown, NJ.
