

Duane Novak

June 4, 1948 - February 7, 2015

Duane Novak, 66, died Saturday, February 7, 2015 at the Lennox Good Samaritan Center. Duane LeRoy Novak was born on June 4, 1948 at Pender, Nebraska, the son of Harry and Darlene (Brehmer) Novak. He grew up near Hurley, South Dakota, graduating from Hurley High School. He lived and worked in Sioux Falls initially as a mechanic for a Sioux Falls Mobile gas station. He went on to become a welder and worked for Eggar Steel. Duane enjoyed hunting and fishing. He collected classic model cars. While at the nursing home, he loved to play bingo. He also enjoyed playing Powerball and in earlier years had won a jackpot. He especially loved to speak with his grandchildren on the phone. Besides his parents, Duane was preceded in death by two brothers, Robert in 1990 and Leonard in 2010. Grateful for having shared his life are his two daughters, Lisa (Christian) Fathauer, Sioux City and Melissa Novak, Sioux Falls, two grandchildren; siblings: Merlin Novak, Lennox, Glen Novak, Hurley, Mark (Rita) Novak, Lennox, Melody Novak, Hurley, Diane Roth, Lennox and sister-in-law, Alice Klinkenborg, Swan Lake as well as other relatives and friends. Memorial services will begin at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, February 12 at Dindot-Klusmann Chapel, Lennox with fellowship time to follow. Visitation with the family present will begin at 9:30 a.m. Thursday prior to the service

Tribute Wall

AN

“ Duane was always willing to lend a hand when someone needed help. I'll always remember his laugh and good sense of humor. ”

Al Nyhus - February 10, 2015 at 12:00 AM