

Duane Plucker

June 24, 1939 - September 6, 2015

Duane Plucker, 76, died Sunday, September 6, 2015 at his Lennox home, under hospice care. Duane Wendell Plucker was born on a farm near Chancellor, SD, on June 24, 1939, the son of Dick W. and Marie (DeVries) Plucker. He grew up here and attended rural school graduating from Lennox High School in 1957. He worked as a purchasing agent for Raven Industries for 27 years. He also served in the SD Air National Guard for 8 years. On January 18, 1963 he married Beverly Peterson at West Prairie Lutheran Church. The couple lived in Sioux Falls and Chancellor before moving to there acreage south of Lennox in 1969. They moved into Lennox in 2013. Duane was a member of West Prairie Lutheran Church and the Lennox American Legion. In earlier years Duane enjoyed riding his Indian motorcycle and was a horseman who participated in team roping and driving horses. He went on to raise donkeys and miniature horses. Duane was preceded in death by his father, Dick W., who died on August 22, 2004 and mother Marie on January 10, 2005. Grateful for having shared his life are his wife of over 50 years, Bev; children: Kandis (Dan) Moore Chancellor and Derrik (Tonya) Plucker, Las Vegas; four grandchildren: Dakodah Moore, Kaydlin Moore, Dalton Plucker and Colman (Maria) Palmer; two great-granddaughters: Presley and Memphis Palmer as well as other relatives and a host of friends. Services will begin at 2:00 p.m. Saturday, September 12 at West Prairie Lutheran Church, rural Lennox. Visitation also at West Prairie Lutheran Church, will be from 6 to 8 p.m. Friday with the family present. Dindot-Klusmann Funeral Home, Lennox

“ Sincere sympathies to the family. Duane will rest in peace and memories will be cherished. The most distinctive thing I remember about him is how he greeted my parents "Vo ist?". -- Gale & Dan Wray
