“ I could go on for days about all the pleasant memories of the entire Cavin family. Eleanor was such a big part of those memories. I'll never forget the get together of our two families initiated by Eleanor shortly after the passing of my dad. That meant so much. The Cavin house on north main was like a second home and Eleanor always made you feel welcome. My deepest sympathies to the Cavin family. Your moms warm heart and sense of humor will never be forgotten.
