“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4

“ Kathy and Karen,
Sending sympathy to you for the loss of your mother. I have many fond memories of playing together when you lived down the road from us. Your mother was always kind and friendly. May your memories sustain you as your lives change without her.

“ I will miss Frances dearly. She was always so sweet to me, and we had several occasions to "shop" together at the Good Samaritan Clothesrack Boutique. We attended First Reformed Church together, and she truly had a Christian Heart & Soul. I am glad for her to be reunited with her beloved husband, and to be in the arms of Jesus. The family has my sympathy.

“ To the Family: Prayers and sympathy to you all. I well remember your mother (and your dad) @ Germantown while I was growing up there. We recently lost our Dad, Raymond Javers, and know what you are going through. But 90 is a good long life and treasuring every memory will bring comfort. -- Gale
