“ My sincere sympathies to Dennis and family during this time of sorrow, at times like these, we can draw comfort from the Holy Scriptures. At Revelation 21:3, 4 God has promised to wipe out all our tears from our eyes and eliminate death and pain. God has also promised a "resurrection" back to life in the future. Jesus said, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Until these promises are fulfilled may you draw close to God because he cares for you and he knows the pain that you are going through.

“ I had the privilege of working with Janet at Head Start for 2 years. We didn't work directly together, but I spoke with her often on the phone & would see her at monthly meetings. I was the secretary there for 2 years. I always enjoyed speaking with Janet, no matter what she was going thru in her life she was always upbeat & never complained. She always made a point of asking how I was doing. She was a thoughtful, kind person & she will be missed.

“ My heart and prayers go out to Janet's family and "extended family" (all of the families that she served). Janet was one of the most genuine and generous people I had ever had the privilege of knowing or working with! She had touched the lives of so many. Heaven has a new "angel"!
You will be missed

“ To the family of Janet Buseman: Janet was such a kind and caring soul. She is the first Saint on earth that I personally knew. Janet has touched so many lives. I will miss her, but it is comforting to know that she is with our Lord.

“ My deepest sympathy to Jan's family. Jan and her family lived north of our family farm by Chancellor. I would babysit for Kristi and Lonni when they were little. I recently connected with Jan when the Head Start program came to Tea. While working at the Tea school, I would frequently run into Jan and we would talk about her family and my family. I will treasure the reconnection and what a great person Jan is. I was fortunate to have had the pleasure of knowing her.
