

Ken Hedin

March 4, 1951 - January 15, 2024

Kendall Hedin, 72, of Davis, SD, passed away unexpectedly, January 15, 2024, at his Davis home from natural causes. Kendall Clarence Hedin was born on March 4, 1951, in Primghar, IA, the son of Dale and Gwen (Hansen) Hedin. Ken was a skilled carpenter who held a variety of jobs in construction, until his retirement. He loved to ride motorcycles, specifically Indian Motorcycles and was known by many as Indian Ken. He is survived by his children: Baron (Shawna) Hedin, Lennox, SD, Stacy Hedin, Dustin Hedin, Mike Hedin and Melinda Hedin, all of Michigan; his grandchildren, other relatives and friends. Per Ken's wishes no public services are planned.

Tribute Wall

RS

“ Just found out about Kendall’s passing. We were high school classmates. He was a fun friend .

Randy Schmith - March 05, 2024 at 12:00 AM

SD

“ I always enjoyed seeing baron and his dad work together. I thought that was a pretty cool deal that they get to spend a lot of time together.

Steve dreth - January 19, 2024 at 12:00 AM

KS

“ Your dad was a good friend of my dad Dick Knock. I met your dad several times and when my dad passed your dad was a great comfort to help me. Your dad was a good man. My deepest sympathy to your family.

Kim Straatmeyer - January 18, 2024 at 12:00 AM