“ The first time I got to know Bobby was in the Early 70's and Fast Pitch Softball and thus the Friendship began. As in Baseball, everyone has their favorite Ball Player and Bobby was mine in Fast Pitch Softball. Big Bobby B, I will miss your Humor, your Big Laugh, but most of all you friendship, God Speed on your Journey Bobby.

“ Bob and I shared a birthday and for years we would find each other on our day and would enjoy a beverage. If we didn't do it in person we would think of each other and say a special salute.
RIP my birthday friend and we will celebrate again someday.
Our sympathy to Bob's family and so many friends.

“ To the family of Bob, sorry to hear of your loss. Big Bob was competitor, but also a friend. Always had time for an hello, a conversation, and a laugh. I looked forward to seeing him at tournaments, as we competed against each others for years, just to rekindle that friendship that was formed. RIP Bob Hope the next time I see you, I get to catch a game.
