“ I miss you, Russ. You were always my favorite cousin. I remember parades and fireworks on the Fourth of July, homemade ice cream and pie on holidays, guitars and games, our pink house next door to yours on Del Mar Ct, your dogs Solomon and Sheba when you lived in the little house in back, camping at Gold Rush and Gold Run, bota bags and waterfalls, lake life, Porsche clubs, getting tickled until I peed my pants, getting thrown in the pool when I wasn't looking and so much more. Rest easy now and give my love to Roger and your mom and dad. We'll meet again one day, cousin. Love you always. 💔
