

Victor "Vic" Hempfling

August 30, 1967 - May 22, 2022

Victor "Vic" Hempfling, 54, died suddenly at his Worthing , SD, home, Sunday evening May 22, 2022, of an apparent heart attack.

Victor Michael Hempfling, was born on August 30, 1967, at Evansville, Indiana, the son of Victor Hempfling and Vicki Wilson. Vic lived in Evansville, until he moved to Rapid City, SD at the age of 17, to live with his brother, David Phillips, who worked at Ellsworth Airforce Base, Vic never considered moving out of SD after that - he loved it here that much.

On August 8, 2018 he was united in marriage to the love of his life, Heather Voges in the backyard of their Worthing, SD home. He was a gifted carpenter who took great pride in his home improvement remodeling and his building projects for others in the community. Vic was an avid gardener and could often be seen caring for his chickens, a stray cat or two, the family dogs and his special goose. He enjoyed tossing bean bags, ice fishing, riding his Harley-Davidson, cheering on the Green Bay Packers and rocking 80's hair band music.

Grateful for having shared his life are his wife Heather and step-son Landon Stafani, Worthing; his children: Brittney Manchester, Hannah Soukup, Bradley Cranny, Brandi Edwards and Austin Pfuhl; siblings: Trudi Bain, Amy Harker and David Phillips; nine grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends. He deeply loved his family.

He was preceded in death by his parents and younger sister, Tracey Hempfling.

Celebration of life memorial services will begin at 10:00 a.m. Thursday, May 26 at Victor's backyard, 305 S Poplar St, Worthing, SD 57077 Officiating is Pastor Ed Kaltenbach.

“ My deepest condolences Heather for your loss. Vic was a wonderful person. I really enjoyed working with him. He was a great friend, and I always enjoyed sitting around shooting the bull with him. We had a lot of good laughs. My only regret is that we didn't get around to taking that ride on the Harleys. I am a better person for knowing him, and will miss him dearly.
