“ I'm deeply saddened to hear about Zach. As one of his high school teachers, I saw the challenges he faced in school, but I also saw the determination and spirit within his heart to persevere!

Zach was a blessing in my life. I will always cherish the memory of the day he walked into my classroom with his cap and gown on; it was a moment of immense pride for me and almost brought me to tears.

May God give you peace and comfort as both of your sons watch over you from Heaven.

*Sincerely,
Shana Legg*

“ You will be missed by so many people but most of all your parents. They loved you unconditionally and always will. Just remember you will see them again to hopefully take away some of the pain. Take care of your brother!

“ I called you my "little Zachie" and sometimes "Zacaroni" (which most of the family didn't like) long after you were too big for baby nicknames. I was there when you were born and it was a joy! As you grew you were always breaking up disagreements so I called you "Peacemaker" and told you "Blessed are the peacemakers" like in the Bible. The first time I came to pick you up to take you to 2 year old Sunday School, you ran to me, threw you arms around my knees and said "Gamma!" and off we went. You brought joy and laughter and always let me know how you felt. Tight hugs from you were standard. My forever young smiling grandson. Love, Grandma Gale
